

Air Force apparently sucks more than byu

Saturday, 29 October 2005

Despite giving up over 40 points against Air Force, byu won. There won't be any celebrating here by the staff of byusucks.net this week. We'll be in mourning and wearing black for the rest of the week.

To make things worse we'll now have to listen to the zoobie's talking smack all week and pounding their chests for their great accomplishment. Do us zoo haters a favor and keep it down a little eh?

The Air Force coach had another interesting quote, this time about byu offensive linemen. (paraphrasing) "Their offensive linemen are 30 years old and 300 pounds each." Kind of funny.
